Our Floor Structure

The most important part of a building is the floor structure. That's why we've spent years in trying, testing, and observing the strengths and weaknesses in different patterns and material. For example, we've gone from a 2"x4" floor joist to a 2"x6" and from straight edge 5/8" flooring to tongue & groove 3/4" flooring that boasts a 50 year limited warranty! That's why we're confident our floor structure will last you for many, many years to come!
